"The Jury Trial in the Twentieth Century," by Roy L. Herndon. Los Angeles Bar Bulletin, December, 1956, pp. 35-54.

Legal Education

"The Bar's Responsibility to Law Students," by Olin E. Watts. The Bar Examiner, September-November, 1956, pp. 130-143.

"The Good Law School," by Reginald Parker. American Bar Association Journal, December, 1956, pp. 1123-1127.

"A Consideration of Systems of Law Schools in the Americas," by Dr. Brendan F. Brown. Louisiana Bar Journal, October, 1956, pp. 84-92.

Legal Profession

"A Reappraisal of the Canons of Ethics," by Philbrick McCoy. American Bar Association Journal, January, 1957, pp. 38-42.

"Freedom—The Role of the Bar," by Malcolm P. Sharp, Lawyers Guild Review (Convention Issue), Spring, 1957, pp. 1-4.

"How the Plaintiff's Lawyer May Aid the Court and Jury," by Ross Rizley. The Journal (Oklahoma Bar Association), December 29, 1956, pp. 2106-2110.

"In Defense of the Public Defender," by Cornelius J. Harrington and Gerald W. Getty. American Bar Association Journal, December, 1956, pp. 1139-1142.

"Our Professional Responsibility: Lawyers Make Freedom a Living Thing," by John D. Randall, American Bar Association Journal, April, 1957, pp. 315-318.

"Lawyers' Conduct in Court," by Levi M. Hall, The Hennepin Lawyer, March, 1957, pp. 87-89.

"Plain Speaking About Courts and Lawyers," by J. Edward Lumbard, The Record of the Association of the City of New York, February, 1957, pp. 72-88.

Pretrial Procedure

"Pretrial Procedure in New Jersey—A Demonstration," by William J. Brennan, Jr. New York State Bar Bulletin, December, 1956, pp. 442-450.

Miscellaneous

"Lawyers Talk Too Much," by Edward S. Greenbaum. Federal Rules Decisions, October, 1956, pp. 217-223.

"The Psychiatrist Before the Court," by A. Warren Stearns. Federal Probation, December, 1956, pp. 26-28.

Index to Volume 40

A cumulative index to the first 20 volumes has been printed separately and will be mailed without charge to anyone upon request. A cumulative index to Volumes 21 through 27 appears in Volume 27, Number 6, April, 1944, and a cumulative index to Volumes 28 through 34 appears in Volume 34, Number 6, April, 1951. Copies of each of these issues also will be sent without charge to anyone upon request. A second twenty-year index covering Volumes 21 through 40 will be printed separately in the near future. This will be mailed without request and without charge to all libraries and exchange publications on our mailing list. It will not be sent to the rest of the general mailing list except upon special request. If you would like to have a copy, send a post card or letter, or clip this paragraph and attach it to your letterhead and send to us and the index will be mailed to you as soon as it is ready.

1. Authors

Brennan, William J. Jr.—From the new supreme court justice (letter), 92. New Jersey tackles court congestion, 45-51.

Carter, James M.—Pre-trial in condemnation cases: a new approach, 78-80.

Deguefe, Taffara—Bouquet from afar (letter), 27.

Editorials—An orchid to a columnist New Orleans Item, May 29), 5. For better law reporting, 3-4. Jury trial and a fable—the fable of the watch that stopped, 35-36. Shoemaker, stick to your last, 67-68. The crisis in federal rule making, 99-101.

Goepel, C. P.—Hats for the ladies? (letter), 59.

Holden, Benedict M., Jr.—Reorganization—not reform, 53-54.

Kaufman, Irving R.—Calendar decongestion in the Southern District of New York, 70-77.

Kilpatrick, James J.—A law editor for Richmond (letter), 58.

Kitson, James T.—Economics and integration (letter), 58.

Manson, R. F.—Judicial robes (letter), 27.

Mittlebeeler, Emmet V.—New family tribunal eases court congestion in nation's capital, 19.

Peck, David W.—The future of the trial lawyer, 38-44.

Quayle, Thomas M.—Criminal law revision in Wisconsin and Minnesota, 88-89.

Stewart, Walter, "Newsfronts" from Cleveland (letter), 58.

Welch, Joseph N.—The challenge of the learned professions—the law, 102-107.

Willcox, Bertram F.—Ford Foundation grants (letter), 92.

Winters, Glenn R.—Newsfronts of judicial reform, 12-18.

2. Legal Education and Admission to the Bar

The challenge of the learned professions—the law, by Joseph N. Welch, 102-107.

Ford Foundation grants (letter), by Bertram F. Willcox, 92.

Four law schools receive Ford Foundation grants, 11.

The future of the trial lawyer, by David W. Peck, 39-44.

State bar of Arizona sponsors legal internship program, 11.

3. Bar Organization

Economics and integration, by James T. Kitson (letter), 58.

Wisconsin, Virgin Islands courts order integration of bar, 23.

4. Bar Activities

Award of merit competition for bar associations announced, 119.

Ban on courtroom photos relaxed in West Virginia, 57.

Cincinnati Bar Association adopts retirement income plan, 40-42.

Cleveland judges call for alteration of Canon 35, 56.

Editorial—Shoemaker, stick to your last, 67.

Florida, Ohio bar associations present annual press awards, 24-25.

For better law reporting, 3-4.

Houston bar moves to new quarters, 57.

"Law in Your Life Week" is St. Louis bar project, 25.

1956 American Bar Association award of merit winners announced, 91.

"Newsfronts" from Cleveland (letter), by Walter Stewart, 58.

Newsfronts of judicial reform, by Glenn R. Winter, 12-18.

New York canon on press releases and public statements, 119.
San Francisco bar studies probate fees, 56.
Section of Bar Activities announces award of merit competition, 23-24.
Two bar associations promote judicial robes, 56.

5. Judges

Bar work for judicial selection no obstacle to dues tax deduction, Internal Revenue Department says, 25.
Book reviews—Institute of Judicial Administration publications: Judicial Retirement, 93; Pensions and Benefits for Judicial Dependents, 93; Salaries of Judicial Personnel, 93; Selection, Tenure and Removal of Judges, 93. Nine Men, by Fred Rodell, 60-61.
Chief justice should report to congress, 68.
Courts and judges of other lands, annual meeting of American Judicature Society, Dallas, Texas, August 28, 1956, 5.
From the new Supreme Court justice (letter), by William J. Brennan, Jr., 92.
Hats for the ladies? (letter), by R. F. Manson, 27.
Judicial compensation (chart), 25.
New Jersey lawyers aid governor in judicial appointments, 26.
Robes as symbols of justice (letter), by Thomas H. Pope, 59.
Seminar for appellate judges conducted at N. Y. U. law school, 80-81.
Two bar associations promote judicial robes, 36.

6. Court Organization and Administration

Book reviews—Institute of Judicial Administration publications: Administrative Offices — Functions Performed, 93; Assignment Systems in Civil Cases, 93; Calendar Status Study—1956, 93; Compulsory Arbitration and Court Congestion—the Pennsylvania Compulsory Arbitration Statutes, 93; Intermediate Appellate Courts—Their Jurisdiction, Caseloads and Expenditures, 93.
Calendar decongestion in the Southern District of New York, by Irving R. Kaufman, 70-77.
Conference on Court Congestion and Delay executive committee, 91.
Justice delayed, 6-11.
The march of progress, 82-85.
Measures to combat court congestion and delay recommended, 108-110.
New family tribunal eases court congestion in nation's capital, by Emmet V. Mittlebeeler, 19-20.
New Jersey tackles court congestion, by William J. Brennan, Jr., 45-51.
Newsfronts of judicial reform, by Glenn R. Winters, 12-18.
New York city court committee begins assignment, 57.
North Carolina plans study of courts, 118.
Reorganization — not reform, by Benedict M. Holden, Jr., 53-54.
Sixteen states have supreme court buildings, 56.
"Stand or fall" court plan offered by New York commission, 55.
Virginia trial justice act is revised and improved, 26.

7. Civil Procedure

The crisis in federal rule making. Editorial, 99-101.

8. Criminal Justice

Book reviews—Crime Courts and Probation, by Charles Lionel Chute and Marjorie Bell, 62.
California bar group endorses death penalty, 56.
Criminal law revision in Wisconsin and Minnesota, by Thomas M. Quayle, 88-89.
Oregon committee works for coroner reform, 57.

9. Appellate Procedure

Book reviews—Institute of Judicial Administration publications: Intermiate Appellate Courts—Their Jurisdiction, Caseloads and Expenditures, 93; Selecting Cases for Appellate Review, 93.

10. Pre-Trial Procedure

Calendar decongestion in the Southern District of New York, by Irving R. Kaufman, 70-77.
New Jersey tackles court congestion, by William J. Brennan, Jr., 45-51.
Pre-trial in condemnation cases—a new approach, by James M. Carter, 78-80.
Pre-trial film is produced in California, 119.

11. Jury Trial

Jury trial and a fable—the fable of the watch that stopped, 35-36.

12. Legal Aid

Book reviews—Public Defenders, Institute of Judicial Administration, 93.
Editorial—An orchid to a columnist (New Orleans Item, May 29, 1956), 5.

13. Judicial Councils and Conferences

14. Miscellaneous

Articles, 30-31, 62-63, 94-95.
Bench and bar calendar, 28, 52, 90, 121.
Echoes from the past, 59.
Items in brief, 26, 57, 91-92.
Judicial administration legislative summary, 82-85, 111-115.
Judicial reform gets boost at A.B.A. mid-year meeting, 116-118.
The reader's viewspoint, 27, 58-59, 92, 121.

American Judicature Society

"A forward look at judicial administration in the Northwest," subject of luncheon panel of American Judicature Society at Pacific Northwest Regional meeting in Spokane, Wash., June 1, 1956, 5.
American Judicature Society affairs, 37.
Bouquet from afar (letter), by Taffara Deguefe, 27.
"Courts and judges of other lands," subject of panel at annual meeting of American Judicature Society, Dallas, Texas, August 28, 1956, 5.
Judicature Society assists lawyers from abroad, 21-22.
The National Municipal League—invitation to American Judicature Society to participate in its annual National Conference on Government, Memphis, Tenn., November 11-14, 1956, 37.
New members of the American Judicature Society, 63, 95, 127.
Photograph and quotation—Henry M. Bates, 32. Oliver Wendell Holmes, 64. Homer Cummings, 96. Henry P. Chandler, 128.
William J. Jameson is elected president of society, 69.

Book Reviews

Bar Associations, Attorneys and Judges—Organization, Ethics, Discipline, by George Brand, 29-30.
Brandeis—A Free Man's Life, by Alpheus Thomas Mason, 123.
Courts of Injustice, by I. P. Callison, 60-61.
Crime, Courts and Probation, by Charles Lionel Chute and Marjorie Bell, 62.
Family Cases in Court, by Maxine Boord Virtue, 122-3.
James Wilson—Founding Father, by Charles Page Smith, 124.
Harlan Fiske Stone—Pillar of the Law, by Alpheus Thomas Mason, 123.
Marriage Consulting, by Skidmore, Garrett and Skidmore, 123.
Mr. Justice, edited by Dunham and Kurland, 123.
Nine Men, by Fred Rodell, 60-61.
Other People's Children, by Anna Judge Veters Levy, 123.
Institute of Judicial Administration publication, 93: Administrative Offices—Functions Performed; Assignment Systems in Civil Cases; Calendar Status Study — 1956; Check List Summary of 1956 Developments in Judicial Administration; Compulsory Arbitration and Court Congestion—The Pennsylvania Compulsory Arbitration Statutes; Improvements in Judicial Administration: 1906-1956; Intermediate Appellate Courts — Their Jurisdiction, Caseloads and Expenditures; Judicial Administration—1955; Pensions and Benefits for Judicial Dependents; Public Defender; Salaries of Judicial Personnel; Selecting Cases for Appellate Review; Selection, Tenure and Removal of Judges.

Judicial Administration

The literature of judicial administration, 29-30, 60-61, 93, 122-125.
The march of progress, 82.